

WIND EROSION DISTRICT ASKED ENTIRE COUNTY

County Wide Election to Be Held on Saturday, February 29 on This Proposal

FARMERS APPROVE

Judge Humble Presents Proposal to Farmers and Commissioners at Friday Meeting

The property owners of Randall county will be called upon to vote on the proposal of creating the "Randall County Wind Erosion Conservation District," in a special election to be held on Saturday, February 29 in each of the voting precincts of the county.

Final action was taken Friday afternoon when Judge C. W. Humble of Amarillo met with the Farm Council members and the Commissioners' Court to thoroughly discuss the proposal. Judge Humble was county judge of Deaf Smith county when the erosion district was formed in that county. He is now with the federal government in its conservation work.

After the proposal was discussed with the farmers Friday, it was voted unanimously to present the petition which had been circulated, and ask the commissioners court to call the election.

The date of the election was set for Saturday, February 29th.

Members of the Farm Council, living in every section of the county, will explain the proposal to their neighbors, and ask them to vote in favor of the creation of the wind erosion district.

All property owners will be allowed to vote in this election, the same as those who vote in bond elections.

If the election carries, the district will be controlled by the commissioners court which has the power to delegate certain authorities to farmer committeemen living in various sections of the county. No salaries are provided for any who assist in this plan.

W. T. Will Start New Semester On Monday, Feb. 3rd

The second semester of this year's work at W. T. will begin Monday, February 3, with many new classes organized for new students who are entering at that time.

Among these classes will be mathematics, bookkeeping, education, English, history, and physical education.

A new member is being added to the English department. He is J. L. Logue, and comes from the University of Texas.

Baby Bonds Will Pay Bonus to All Ex-Service Vets

Ex-service men of Randall county will receive $104,495.24 in baby bonds in full payment of compensation during the world war which had been adjusted several years ago with certificates issued to the men, payable in 1945.

Congress passed the bill last week by the largest majority ever given a bonus bill. The President vetoed the measure Friday, giving his reasons as stated ten months ago in his veto message which he delivered personally to congress.

The House immediately voted to override the veto 326 to 61.

Monday the Senate voted 76 to 19 to likewise override the veto.

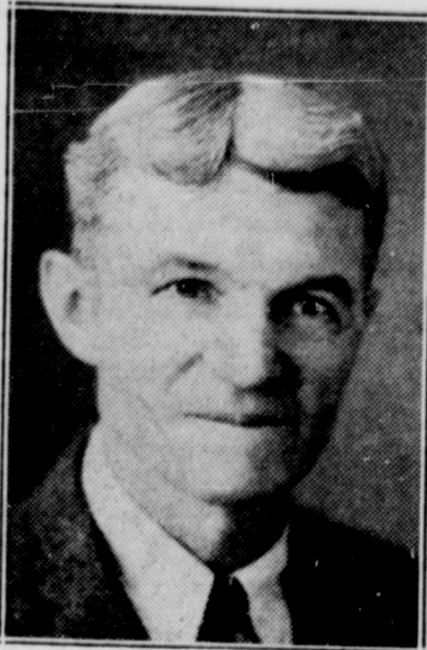

President Roosevelt announced immediately that the government would take the necessary steps to insure prompt payment under the terms of the bill.

The baby bonds will be ready for distribution on June 15. Veterans may convert them into cash at their postoffice, or may hold them. They will draw 3% interest.

Application blanks will be received in a few days by the Palo Duro Post and ex-service men will be assisted in making application for the payment of the bonus.

Guy Harp is Post Commander and Andy Walsh is Adjutant of the local Post.

District Court Extended Until Motions are Made

Fifth Man Received Pen Sentence—Grand Jury Makes Report on Work of Session

Although the regular session of the district court came to an end Saturday night, Judge E. C. Nelson extended the term in order to close up three cases upon which motions are pending. It is likely that Judge Nelson will end the term during this week by disposing of these cases.

L. D. Ray was convicted by a jury of theft of a cow and was given a two year sentence. He was the fifth man who had received a penitentiary or suspended sentence during the term.

Two divorces were granted during the final days of the term: Malinda Pite Leavitt from J. J. Leavitt; and Billie Mayben Woods from Chalmer Woods.

Other cases disposed of were: C. R. Burrow vs. C. C. White et al, judgment for plaintiff.

Anna I. Hibbets vs. J. W. Dison, judgment for plaintiff.

First State Bank of Happy vs. G. R. Forbus, et al, judgment for plaintiff.

More than 50 men and women were arrested at Harding's Ranch on Sunday, Dec. 22 and charged with participating in cock fighting. More than 20 plead guilty and paid off their fines amounting to $14 each. A group of about 20 are said to have employed an attorney to fight the charge.

TAX PAYMENTS MUST BE MADE BY FRIDAY NITE

Poll Tax Payments Are Very Slow in Randall According to Latest Reports

MANY EXEMPTIONS

January 31 is Final Day on Which Tax Payers May Pay Taxes Without a Penalty

The dead line for paying state and county taxes comes Friday night, January 31st.

The usual last minute rush for tax payments is expected today and tomorrow in view of the rather slow payments which have been made so far this season.

Poll tax payments are running behind other election years, according to the report from R. N. Barnett's office, Tuesday. Only 1100 receipts had been issued up to that time. There are practically 2200 men and women in the county of legal age who should secure a poll tax receipt.

Exemption certificates of those who have become of age since January 1, 1935, or will become of age during 1936, are being issued in large numbers. Those who are over age need not secure an exemption.

Governor Allred To Not Call Special Session of Legislature

Governor James V. Allred announced Monday that he would not call a special session of the legislature in the near future. He had planned for the session to be held this month.

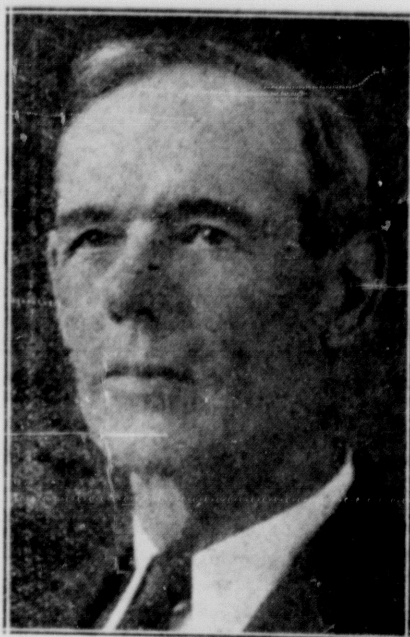

The need of the immediate call was to provide money to pay the old age pensions.

In view of the fact that the pension law does not become effective until Feb. 14, and the first payments are not due to be made until July 1st, the Governor states there will be enough money from liquor permits to meet the first payments. By that time the pension board will have a better knowledge as to the amount of money that will be necessary.

W. T. (Bill) Davis Candidate Sheriff, Tax Assessor, Col.

W. T. (Bill) DAVIS

The News is authorized to announce the candidacy of W. T. (Bill) Davis as a candidate for the office of Sheriff, Tax Assessor and Collector of Randall County.

"I have been a resident of Canyon for 15 years," stated Mr. Davis, yesterday. "During that time I have been employed for 13 years by the Thompson Hardware Company, during which time I have met a large part of the people of this county, and have been of service to them. As a result of this experience, they understand my capacity to meet the public in a prompt and courteous manner," states Mr. Davis.

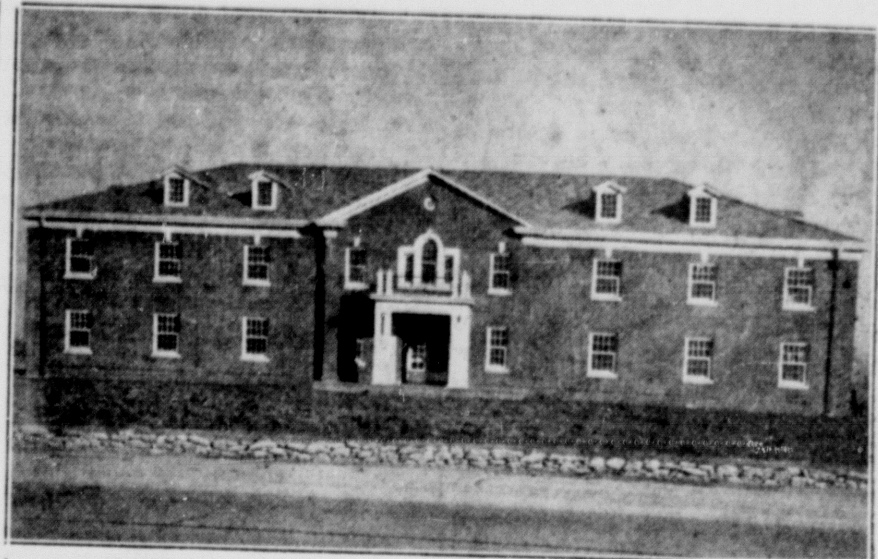

A native of Tennessee, Mr. Davis came to Texas in 1887 and lived in Parker county before moving to Canyon 15 years ago. He has had two years of College training. He served as deputy tax collector in Parker county for one term, and is therefore acquainted with the responsibilities connected with the office.

"I have never asked for public office at the hands of the tax payers," states Mr. Davis, "but have always taken an active part as a citizen in the welfare of the county. I know that I am qualified to hold this important office if I should be elected. The office requires the employment of several deputies in handling the large amount of business, and if elected I shall employ only those who are qualified to do their work, and who will be courteous to the taxpayers who have business to transact in this office."

"I shall make an effort to see each voter in the county during this campaign as I want to meet every person, and let them judge for their selves my qualifications to hold the office to which I aspire. However, I realize that in the campaign I may overlook some voters, or be unable to find them at home. Should this be the case, I want them to feel in this manner (Continued on last page)

Many Reservations Are Made for New Dormitory—Furnishings in Building Complete

Stafford Hall, the new modern $47,000 dormitory for men will officially open Monday. Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Meyer, supervisors of the new hall are making plans for the formal opening to be held soon.

Stafford Hall is the only men's dormitory on a Texas State Teachers College Campus and will accommodate forty young men. Only 10 reservations are still open. Reservations for rooms are made in the office of the Business Manager.

The new building is modern in every respect and is constructed of fireproof materials. The walls are of a light-colored plaster except in the dining hall and reception room, which are prepared. The ceiling is decorated with run plaster and moldings.

Four types of floor material have been used in the Hall. Floors in the bedrooms are covered with T. M. B. mastic floor covering; the down-stairs corridors are of asphalt tile blocks, alternating green and brown blocks with a mahogany border; the floors of the baths are covered with clay tile blocks; and the floors of the dining room and reception room are of red oak.

Conveniently located electric outlets for lamps and radios have been placed in the walls. Each room has an individual buzzer connected with the office, by which students can be notified of phone calls and visitors. In the same unit is a return buzzer for answering the call.

The dining room located on the south end of the first floor affords ample sunshine and is beautifully decorated in keeping with the colonial design of the whole building.

Mrs. M. B. Lyon, who has had wide experience in institutional cookery, will supervise the kitchen of Stafford Hall. Delightful and wholesome food is insured by ample refrigeration and modern and efficient cooking utensils.

Dr. Meyer states, "Stafford Hall was built with the express purpose of providing W. T. men with a comfortable dormitory which would afford the necessary social and mental atmosphere for high standards of college work."

Pat M. Neff Made Chairman of the Texas State Parks

Pat M. Neff was elected chairman of the Texas State Parks Board Friday to succeed D. E. Colp, deceased. Mr. Neff is president of Baylor University, and is a former Governor of Texas.

Governor Allred appointed Wendell Mayes of Brownwood to the Texas State Parks Board in October to succeed Mr. Colp. The attorney general ruled the governor without authority to name the chairman, and Mr. Neff, vice chairman, continued to act as chairman until Friday's meeting.

Governor Neff notified The News last week that he intended making a trip to the Palo Duro as soon as possible in order to become personally acquainted with the work in progress.

Bids on Brick in New Postoffice Are Called For

Brick manufacturers have been called to make bids on 50,000 face brick for the new post office building in Canyon, according to representatives who were here Monday.

Improvements at Dreamland Cemetery During Year

Many Trees and Flowers Are Planted—Committees Express Great Appreciation

In the spring of 1935 a number of women of Canyon met for the purpose of considering plans for the improvement of Dreamland Cemetery. Realizing that concerted and organized action would accomplish many things needed in order that the cemetery might become a place of beauty rather than a bleak burial ground, the Canyon Cemetery Association resulted. The following officers were elected: Mrs. R. A. Terrill, president; Mrs. Clyde McElroy, vice-president; Mrs. E. D. Harrell, secretary-treasurer.

Committees were appointed. Mrs. J. Madison Daugherty became chairman of the committee on records which is seeking details of ownership of various lots and persons interred thereon. Mrs. H. W. Hartman, who being temporarily out of the city, was succeeded by Mrs. Levi Cole is the chairman of the committee on flowers and decorations, and Mrs. R. McGee was selected as chairman of the committee on membership.

As evidence of the activity of the association and the hearty cooperation of the citizens of the county, the city officials and county officials, rapid improvement in the (Continued on last page)

This is the third meeting of the Conference which is planned for all friends of education as well as teachers and administrators. This year's program will feature Willard W. Beatty, Superintendent of Schools, Bronville, N. Y., and Dr. Frank W. Hart of the University of California.

Beatty's address at the opening session will be "Will Teachers Give up their Right to Teach Without a Fight?" There will be five general sessions and five special sessions. It is expected that at least 1500 people will attend the conference.

Temperature Hits Near Zero Following Plains Snow

Fifth of Inch Moisture Received Here From Fall of Snow; Coldest Wave of Year

The thermometer at the Gas Office stood at 4 degrees above zero this morning, while the one at the Santa Fe depot stood at 3 degrees below. This is the coldest wave of the winter.

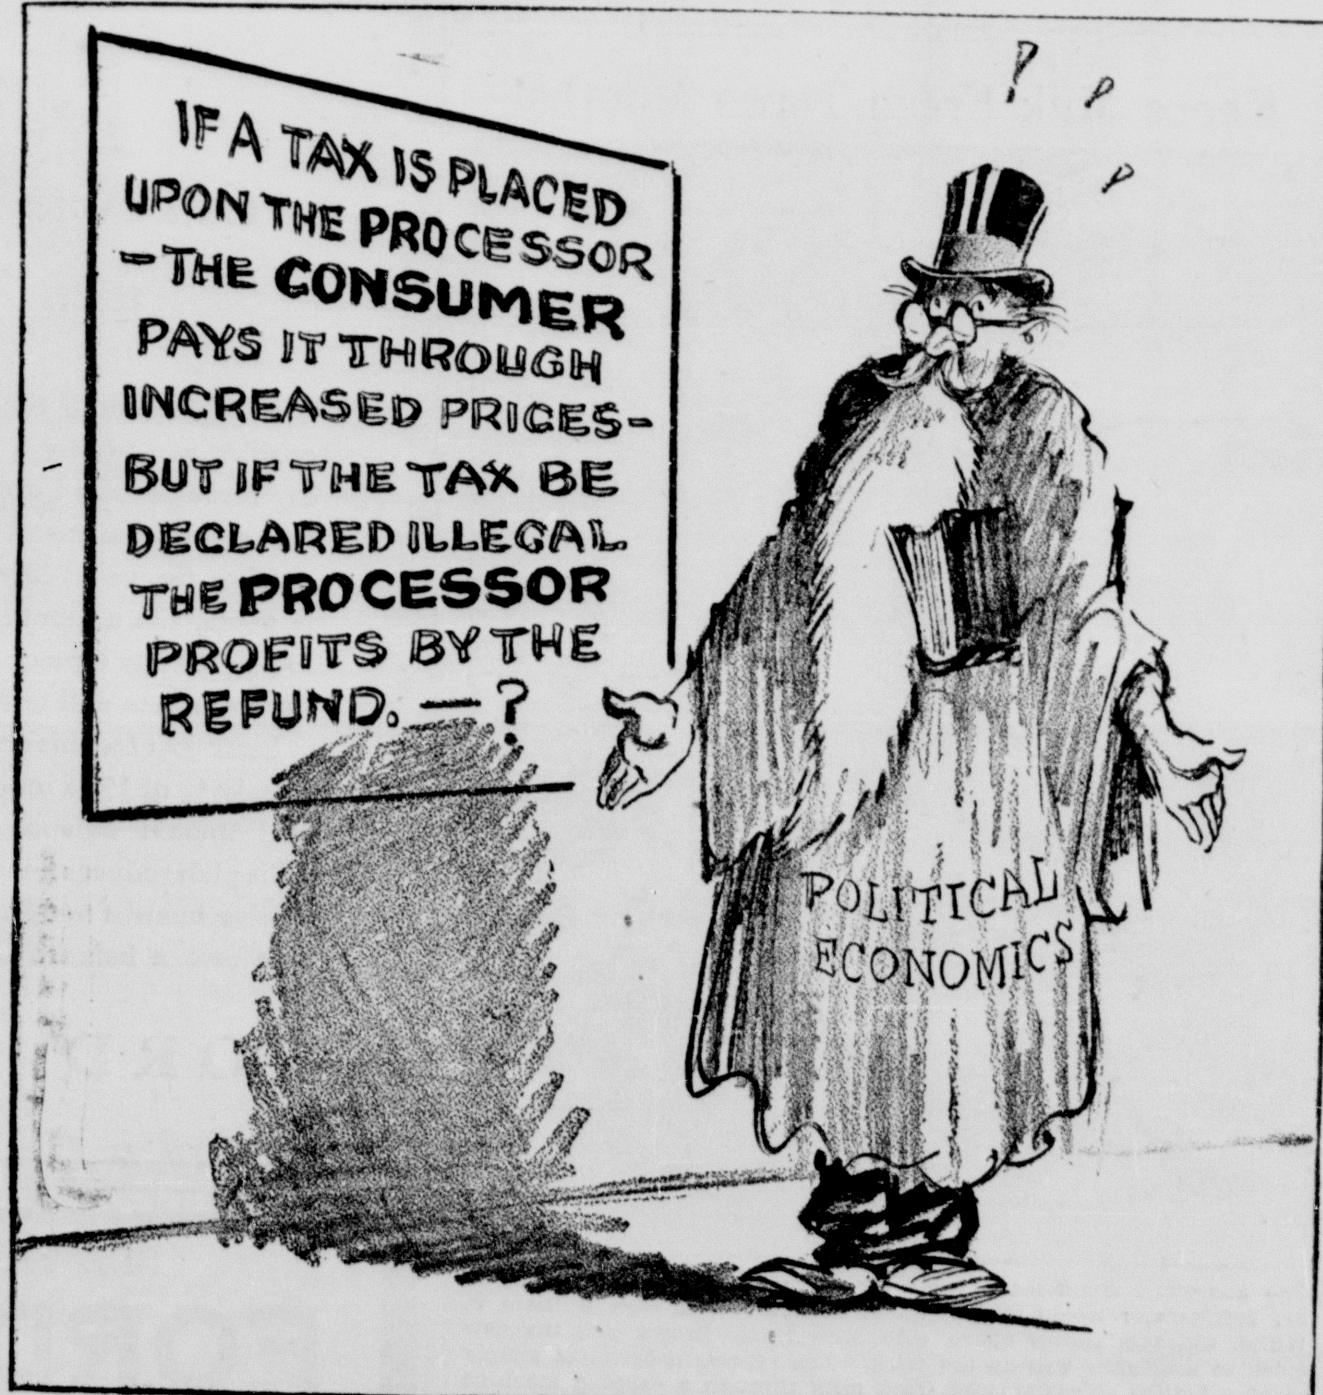

Snow fell throughout the day Wednesday, measuring 3½ inches in Canyon, and brought 20 of an inch of moisture.

The amount of snow varied in different sections of the Panhandle. While not laden with as much moisture as previous snows, the added moisture of this week is gratefully received. Little wind accompanied the snow, and it drifted less than the last one.

T-Anchor Will Be Improved Under NYA Labor Program

A new NYA project is under way at Canyon. It will employ 21 young men from families eligible for WPA.

The project will be the improvement and beautification of the T-Anchor ranch. The work will be supervised by Prof. T. M. Moore, who is supervisor of the college farm. Hundreds of trees and shrubs will be planted and the dam at the swimming pool will be rip-rapped. It is expected that the appearance of the place will be greatly improved before great numbers of Texas Centennial tourists begin passing thru this spring. The young men between the ages of 16 and 25 who are employed on this project will work not more than 46 hours each month. This plan is a part of the NYA scheme for assisting rural relief families. Through this and other jobs similar to it the young people of needy families can contribute a small amount to the family support and at the same time get experience in holding a job and have the satisfaction of assisting in work of permanent value.

EDITOR HILL DEFENDS THE COURTS

Editor E. I. Hill of the Tahoka News is an able lawyer as well as good newspaper publisher. During the present turbulent criticism of the Supreme Court, Mr. Hill has been an ardent defender of this seat of justice.

The Canyon News cannot agree with those who would abolish the powers of the Supreme Court to pass upon acts of congress, but two weeks ago we pointed out to the increasing number of injunction suits both in state and federal courts, and expressed the opinion that court powers should be limited in the powers of injunctions.

Mr. Hill disagrees with our stand. We reproduce his editorial in view of the increasing interest which is shown by the people in this problem:

It seems hard for us Americans to get things fixed to suit us, including the powers granted to our courts.

Every time a court renders a decision that doesn't suit us, we want to curb its power.

Following the recent decisions of the U. S. Supreme Court declaring the NRA and AAA unconstitutional, some Congressmen, including a few lawyers, want to take this power away from the courts, all the courts. Our esteemed contemporary, Mr. Warwick of the Canyon News, does not commit himself on the proposition to curb the power of the Supreme Court, but he does make three suggestions for limiting the powers of inferior courts, state and national.

He would prohibit any federal court except the Supreme Court from declaring acts of Congress unconstitutional.

He would prohibit any state court except the State Supreme Court from declaring any act of the Legislature unconstitutional.

And he would prohibit what he calls "government by injunction."

he has served in the state legislature. He is one of the most sane and conservative editors in West Texas, but we think that he is wrong on all three of these propositions.

We do not believe, for instance, that a citizen of Canyon, charged with the violation of some federal statute which he believed to be unconstitutional and which his attorneys believed to be unconstitutional, should be prohibited from making that kind of defense in the same court in which the charge is filed. We do not believe that he should be compelled to wait until after he has been convicted in the lower court and incarcerated, possibly, in a federal prison, before he could set up such a defense; neither do we believe that he should be compelled to go all the way to Washington or send his attorneys to Washington to make such a defense except upon appeal from the adverse ruling of the court in which the proceedings were started. Furthermore, we do not believe that a litigant in a civil suit should be estopped from making such a defense in the court in which the suit was instituted. He should not be compelled to go to the expense and trouble of going to Washington to have his rights adjudicated except upon appeal.

Neither should a man charged with a violation of a state law be estopped from attacking the constitutionality and validity of such law on his trial. He should not be compelled to go to Austin, except upon appeal from a lower court, to have his rights under the law and the constitution adjudicated. Neither should a litigant in a civil suit be compelled to do so.

As for "government by injunction," that is only a myth—a phrase coined several years ago by disgruntled labor unionists who had been restrained by the courts from damaging property, interfering with the rights of other workmen, and doing other illegal acts.

Temporary injunctions are granted by the courts to protect an individual in his rights and to restrain another person from doing some unlawful or damaging act, until the matters in dispute can be heard by the court and adjudicated. Temporary injunctions are made permanent by the courts when the courts find that there is merit in the allegations of the complaining party. We think the lower courts, the courts on the ground where the parties live, should have this authority and power to protect the rights of parties to a suit. We do not think that any party should be compelled to run off to Austin or Washington to get an injunction against some individual who is flagrantly violating his rights, or making way with or damaging his property.

We observe the imperfections of our courts and sometimes fancy that we can make them perfect by making some change. All such suggested changes as above, however, would bring about far greater imperfections and evils than those which the proposed changes are designed to cure. We need to bring about some reforms in court procedure, but we should not monkey with the powers of our courts unless we know what we are doing.

Al Smith has a good case of the belly ache. Sour grapes stuck out in everything that Al had to say about the New Deal Saturday night. His speech was unbecoming the man who boasts of having campaigned 21 times for the Democratic party. One is tempted to believe that Al would rather have seen Hoover continue in the President's office, as bad as he termed the Hoover administration four years ago, as to see his old time friend as the President. The only thing good about the Democratic party that Al could dig up was the party platform which he helped write in June, 1934. The platform he praised very highly regardless of whether or not the platform met the situation when President Roosevelt was inaugurated in March, 1933. The trouble with Al is that he has fallen in with the special interests who are afraid that they are going to be forced to pay their share of the recovery program. This gang has been trading rubber checks between themselves and evading their share of the taxes. Now that they have been caught, this bunch will be forced to pay their just share of the federal taxes and consequently they are sore as blazes at the administration and everything that is connected with it. Poor old Al is a tottering old man who has fallen into the wrong crowd. Perhaps the fresh air on his threatened walk will do him good.

My oh my, if we'd all become Canyon conscious—business people who have been known to "buy it out of town," along with others who certainly do, the year of 1936 in this old town would show some business improvement, and how! Some editor has suggested the following procedure, on the frequent and oft-calling peddler who raps at the door: When he does, greet him with a smile and fire these questions at him point-blank:

Do you pay taxes to support our streets, public schools, and other public institutions?

Do you support or contribute to our churches?

Do you contribute anything to worthy community projects?

Are you a member of the Chamber of Commerce here?

Do you spend the majority of the money you make here, like our business men are doing?

Are you eligible to vote here?

If the peddler stays long enough to hear all of your questions and if he fails to show that he is one of our community builders, you have your strongest point for refusing to listen to his sales line. A pleasant good day will send him on his way.

Connie Mack, at an Age Far Past Retirement Mark, Tackles Task of Building New Team

BY PHILIP MARTIN

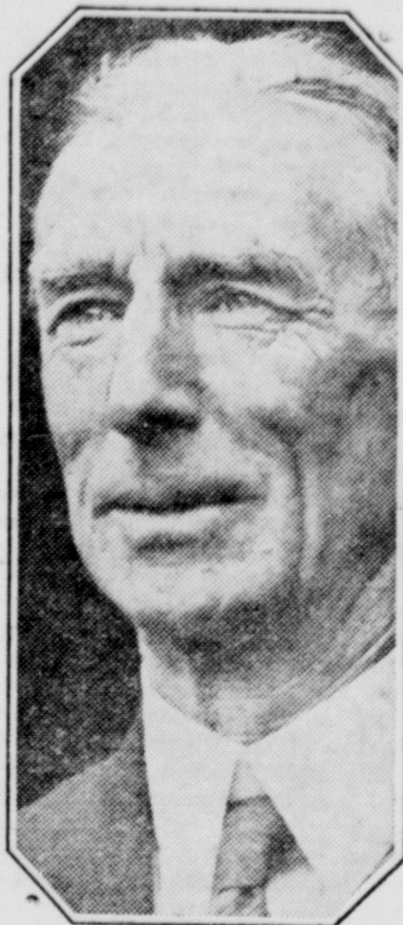

THERE is remarkable similarity between the present situation confronting Connie Mack and his business associates and that existing at the time the famed "$100,000 infield" was the main topic of discussion in baseball circles.

In each case the Quaker City fans have grown tired of flag-winning teams and stayed away from Shibe Park in throngs, necessitating the peddling of stars to eliminate huge salary expenditures and to make up the deficit caused by an alarming drop in attendance figures.

As the Philadelphia Athletics were constituted last season, the addition of two good hurlers early in the year might easily have changed the entire American League panorama last October.

But the winter trade winds have blown into a cocked hat whatever chances Connie's boys had of landing a first division berth in the coming flag race. The way things shape up now, they will be lucky to rise above the eighth rung, for disposing of Jimmy Foxx, John Marcum, Roger Cramer, and Eric McNair to the Red Sox has worked irreparable damage to what was the nucleus of a cracking good team.

So once again—this time at an age when most business men have long since retired—the grand old man of baseball sets himself to the tremendous task of building a diamond machine of major league caliber out of odds and ends.

A lifetime of baseball is the record of Connie Mack, the grand old man of the diamond. Now, at 73, he faces the task of building another great team, since bad breaks of the last two years have forced him to peddle his stars. Mickey Cochrane, manager of the Detroit Tigers, got his start with Mack, as did many other famous players.

Some of the cogs at hand consist of Bob Johnson and Wally Moses, a good garden pair; Pinky Higgins, a first-class third sacker; and Rabbit Warstler, whose performance to date in the inner works has been good.

The mound corps is composed of a few veterans and a number of fledglings. Of these, Roy Mahaffey, Henry Johnson, Dusty Rhodes, George Blaholder, and Vernon Wilshire will bear the brunt of the pitching during the 1936 campaign. Berry, Hayes, and Savino will divide the relieving duties. Berry, first stringer, incidentally, would make any big league outfit a good second-string catcher.

Baseball interest in the Friendly City should hit a new low next summer with the White Elephants in their present state and the Phillies being . . . well, just the same old Phillies.

"BABE" RISKO traveled the world over in his six-year term with the U. S. Navy . . . but he couldn't travel far or fast enough to avoid a one-round kayo in his recent bout with Jock McAvoy, British champ. . . . Buffaloes Hit Hard Sledding at Abilene —Win Two at Home

With three losses and one win, the Buffaloes returned Sunday from Abilene where the team met the three colleges of that city on four nights. Harden-Simmons whipped the Buffs in two games, Wednesday and Thursday nights, 36-32, 38-34.

A. C. C. was easily defeated Friday night, 41-19.

McMurry took the big end of the score Saturday night, 40-35.

The two games with Simmons were along the football type, however the Ranchers have one of the best collegiate teams in the country. The first game with the Cowboys was marked by sensational shooting by Butch Clark, and George Ray Colvin, while Benson was the shining light for the H-S. U. Cagers. The second game was a tussle from end to end, Captain Willie Boedeker, Colvin, and Clark were outstanding in this battle, and Benson repeated as the Simmons star.

In the game with A. C. C. every Buff played some sensational ball, with Jack Davis holding high-scoring honors. A. C. C. was no match for the more experienced Buffs.

The McMurry game was marked by wild scoring and inspirational shooting by the Indians. The Buffs got away to an early lead, and with Colvin, Boedeker, R. Davis, and Clements pounding the circle with deadly aim, but the Indians would not say die, and as the game grew into its tottery stage—Arrants, Meek, and Anthony began throwing them in from every angle, and as 1500 fans went into a fan dance the roof came off of the gym and the whistle blew. McMurry held the long end of a 35 to 40 score.

The Oklahoma Aggies from Goodwell were here Monday and Tuesday, the Buffs adding two victories to their string of the year. Monday's game was won 44-25; Tuesday's game, 37-25.

Oklahoma City University will play the Buffs here Feb. 3-4.

Off-Campus Studes, 363, in Seven Towns Completing Semester

Three hundred sixty-three off-campus students of W. T. are finishing their half-year's work at this time. These students are in classes at Wheeler, Memphis, Floydada, Dimmitt, Vernon, Amarillo, and Clarendon.

The instructors are: Professors L. F. Sheffy, P. E. Savage, C. A. Murray, A. M. Meyer, Arlin Turner, B. F. Fronabarger, R. P. Jarrett, S. H. Condon, and H. M. Cook.

A special feature of extension classes in curriculum construction as they are conducted by W. T. is the demonstrations given by classroom teachers. Miss Helen White Moore has demonstrated the construction of units in English, Mrs. Laura J. Saunders, Miss Ruth Lowes, and Miss Elva Fronabarger, principal of the Canyon elementary school, have shown how units of work are developed in the primary grades. J. B. Pope, principal of the Canyon high school, has done similar work in the fields of commerce and social sciences.

At Clarendon all the teachers and patrons of Donley county were invited to attend one of these demonstrations and to ask questions. Prof. S. H. Condon is in charge of this class. At Dimmitt, Dr. H. M. Cook carried out similar plans with teachers, parents and trustees invited to participate. The Hall county teachers in a class at Memphis were given the same advantage in connection with a class being taught by Prof. P. E. Savage. This plan was worked out to bridge the gap between the college teacher and the classroom teacher working in the small town or rural school.

Klepper Art Exhibit Is Placed in Museum Historical Society

An exhibit of nineteen paintings by Frank Klepper, Texas Artist and landscape painter, has been placed in the Art Gallery of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum this week. It may be seen by visitors today and until Feb. 23.

This is the fourth of a series which have been arranged as a part of the Texas Centennial observance at W. T. The pictures were hung by Miss Isabel Robinson, head of the art department of the college.

Frank Klepper, native Texan, has won nearly all of the art prizes which are offered in the state of Texas, including the Everts Gold Medal and the Woman's Forum Medal. In 1935 he carried off the Purchase Prize of the Oak Cliff Society of Fine Arts and the Joseph Sartor Popularity Prize of the Allied Arts Association. The latter picture is in the Canyon exhibit.

Mrs. J. M. Fite was taken to an Amarillo Sanitarium yesterday for treatment of blood poisoning as a result of a pin sticking her finger while she was working in the sewing rooms last week.

Prof. John H. Casey Is Headliner for the Arkansas Press Meet

Prof. John H. Casey, country and school newspaper specialist, who is to be a member of the summer faculty of W. T., was recently the head liner at the meeting of the Arkansas Press Association at Little Rock.

In one of his speeches there Mr. Casey said that the weekly community newspaper is distinctly an American institution. He also pointed out that the average country weekly commands by far the most reader-hours, claiming four reader hours for the weekly against a half reader-hour for the large city daily. When in Canyon next summer, Mr. Casey will give several addresses up town and will conduct a five-day news clinic on the campus.

Various Methods of Establishing Age Under Pension Law

Facing old-age assistance applicants will be the difficulty of proving their ages, Orville S. Carpenter, executive director of the Old Age Assistance Commission said when asked what he thought the most difficult problem of old people making application.

Application forms will be distributed to cities and towns over the State and will be available to all who want them, February 14, when the law goes into effect. As required by the new law, certain facts must be established by the applicant. The law grants assistance to the needy who are 65 years of age or more, and each applicant must definitely and conclusively prove his or her age.

"There are many ways by which a person can establish his age," Director Carpenter stated. "The Commission will consider any evidence that proves or helps to establish definitely the age of any applicant. However, it will be necessary in each case for the applicant to establish to the satisfaction of the Commission, by whatever means he can, that he is 65 years of age."

A number of kinds of evidence to be used are the following:

1. Birth certificates.
2. Marriage certificates giving the ages of both parties.
3. Birth certificates of children giving age of parents.
4. Ages of sons and daughters when these are sufficiently advanced.
5. Naturalization papers giving age at time of applying for same.
6. Passports. Service books of immigrants.
7. County records. Baptismal certificates.
8. Insurance papers.
9. Employment records.
10. School records.
11. Records of trade unions, fraternal societies, or other organizations.
12. Federal or State records in the case of those who have been in civil or military service.
13. D. A. R. U. D. C. Daughters of Texas Revolution, etc.
14. Hospital records, or those of physicians.
15. Vaccination certificates.
16. Poll tax receipts that show the actual age of voter and not mere fact that he has passed a certain age.
17. Local census records which may give birthdate and place. National Census Records, Dept. of Census, Washington, D. C.
18. Old licenses of various kinds (such as hunting, fishing, and liquor licenses) sometimes carrying age.
19. Tombstone records when stones have been erected in anticipation of death.
20. Entries in a family bible or other genealogical records or memoranda of families of applicants.
21. Bills of sale as a slave in the case of aged negroes.
22. Such other evidence as the Old Age Assistance Commission may approve.

Miss Elva Fronabarger and Miss Helen White Moore accompanied Harris M. Cook to Dimmitt last week where he is conducting an extension class. Miss Fronabarger and Miss Moore gave a demonstration on some new work.

'Diving Venus,' 1936 Model

It is hard to believe that just about 26 years ago Annette Kellerman, the original bathing beauty, was arrested in Boston for wearing a one-piece bathing suit which came to the calf of the leg. Miss Kellerman is shown above wearing a 1936 model bathing suit at Palm Beach, Fla.

Butterfly Collection Museum Attracting Very Great Interest

If milady and her daughter of the Panhandle want new ideas for their spring clothes, they can get them right now—from butterflies. Not that there are any butterflies to be seen in the winter sunshine of Northwest Texas. Instead they are tropical butterflies on display at the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum.

There are nineteen of them and they make up the Susan J. Allen butterfly collection. They look as if they had been captured yesterday but they were bought in London, England in 1892 and their brilliant colors indicate their careful preservation. Each butterfly is in a plaster of paris and glass mount made by Dento Bros., of Wellesley, Mass.

If new sport clothes are needed, the Catogramma Piteas of South America suggests a combination of orange and brown, but her neighbor, Charaxes Pollux of Africa, proclaims that yellow and brown and burnt orange is preferable, while the small butterfly labeled "Souvenir of Florida" seems to declare that brown and tan and white is a good golf link combination for the modest woman.

Urania Lellus, a gay butterfly from New Granada, dares milady to adopt her shade of glossy green and black for evening wear. Then, there is Morpho Sulikowskyi who sounds as if she came from Russia, but who actually hails from Columbia, South America, who can put ideas into the head of any blond. Looked at from one direction, her colors are delicate blue and grey, from another they are shades of purple and from still another, a combination of purple and brown.

For the matron who is forty-five, who has married off her daughters and is willing to admit her age, there are the somber shades of blue and brown and off-white of Euploeia Radamanthyr, which seems to reflect the seriousness of Northern India from which it comes. Even the girl with movie aspirations and the business woman can find colors. Papilio Hector of Ceylon, proclaims that he is from the hot regions and offers a fring combining red and dark brown which would get nearly any girl into the casting director's office. The Kallima Inachis of India is tailor-made enough for anybody's secretary. The color scheme is brown with bits of orange and purple for relief.

Any woman with a bit of imagination and even a small budget can visit a butterfly collection and plan a wardrobe which will carry her happily through the summer. More things than history can be learned in the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum.

John Schramm made a business trip to Fort Worth Thursday. He returned Saturday.

Alfred Bellah made a business trip to Sterling City this week.

Eagles Win Two Games; Eaglettes
Defeat Goodnight

The Eagle cagers annexed two victories last week end when they defeated the Hereford Whitefaces 29 to 22 at Hereford Friday and duplicated the feat by conquering the Goodnight Buffaloes 31 to 13 here Saturday. The Eaglettes lost to Hereford Friday, and won over the Goodnight sextet by the score of 30 to 26 on the local floor Saturday night.

This was the first game the Eagles had won from the Whitefaces in three years. Last year the Eagles lost 32 to 24 and 22 to 17.

Clayton, of Hereford, was high-point scorer with 10 points to his credit. Rusk received second place scoring honors, finding the basket for nine of Canyon's 29 points.

In the good night game, Captain Taylor and Rusk tied for high point honors, scoring six points each for the local five. This was the first time Canyon and Goodnight had ever met on the basketball courts.

Hereford Wins
With a clatter of feet and on-the-toe audience, the Hereford sextet stampeded on their home court Friday night and crushed the flying Eaglettes by a score of 18 to 12.

Those of the Eaglettes who played during the game were: Davis, McNeill, Brock, Bellah, Slack, Collins, Greenfield, and Overton.

Eaglettes Win Saturday
The Eaglettes won a hard-fought battle in the grade school gymnasium Saturday night with the Goodnight sextet in an extra three-minute play after the two teams had tied scores. The final score stood 30 to 26.

McNeill made the Eaglettes leaders at the close of the three minutes, by scoring the two final scores.

Davis was high-point forward, having 16 points to her credit. Brown of Goodnight was second, scoring 12 points.

The Eaglettes who played were: Davis, McNeill, Mayfield, Slack, Donnell, Overton, Harden, Collins, and Greenfield.

Goodrich Speaks
To Hi-Y Meeting

"The Greatest Things in Life" was the subject for discussion in the talk given by Miss Lois Goodrich, faculty member of the Canyon High School, at the Hi-Y meeting last Monday night.

Miss Goodrich gave these signboards on the road to Greatness: Greatness is not usually inherited.

Greatness cannot be bought. Greatness is not popularity. Greatness is not accidental. Greatness is not a superficial thing.

She continued, "They are only truly great who are truly good, and I think that no man is great until he can see how little there is less he would be without God."

She concluded with the thought that love is the greatest thing in life—basing her conclusions on I Corinthians, chapter 13.

"What Life Means to Me," by Joe Frank, and a reading, "When Earth's Last Picture Is Painted," given by Sewel Cox were the other numbers on the program.

Immediately following the program a short business meeting was held in which several applications for membership were considered. The new members who are accepted are Glenn Moss, Roy Cofer, J. V. Moore, Carl Cone, and David Phillips.

Elliott James' Skill
With Liquid Air
Astonishes Crowd

Amid the foaming of liquid air and a slight laboratory tang, Elliott James, nationally known liquid air demonstrator, added to the astonishment of more than 100 people gathered in the high school auditorium, January 22, by holding some of the freezing liquid in his mouth while the steam from the boiling of the liquid engulfed him.

Mr. James, cousin of Joe Winstead, 35, proving himself a true scientist, divided his combined lecture and demonstration into four parts. They were freezing and melting, effect on composition of materials, molecules, oxygen, and other air elements.

James Makes Candle
To prove his lecture Mr. James made a kerosene candle, boiled the air on ice, ran a steam airplane, made cloth and rubber brittle, caused an electric light to burn brighter by putting its wires into the liquid, showed the color of the air gases through the spectroscope, burned some mercury to form a hammer that would drive nails and caused lead bells to ring sharply by freezing them in the air.

By trying to cap a tube of the liquid air which exploded corks into an excited audience and into the eager hands of small boys, Mr. James caused a commotion and interest among the audience second only to that of putting the liquid air into his mouth.

Air Costs $6 a Gallon
Although liquid air, which costs about $6 per gallon, is dangerous because of its temperature (312 degrees F), Mr. James explained how he could handle the air without injury.

Mr. James, former teacher of science in Frankfort, Ky., when being interviewed after the performance, said that he has given over 2,000 demonstrations during the last ten years to high schools alone, besides his two years at the Chicago Worlds Fair.

When asked if people bother him with questions and investigations after the performance he said, "Some performers are bothered with small children, but in my case the adults are as bothersome as the children if not more so."

Carruth Finds Elk
In Mouse Trap??

Yes, school professors do have hobbies just as other people. Some one mentioned the fact that Supt. I. B. Carruth went hunting.

What did he hunt with? Mr. Sanders said it was a mouse trap. What did he catch? An overgrown elk—at least the horns seem to have been borne by a very large elk.

The fact is that a pair of elk horns has been placed in the second floor over the doors of the main entrance of the high school.

Some students believed Mr. Carruth's story, but a few saw Mr. Milton Dooley when he loaned the horns to the school Jan. 14. The elk was killed in Colorado.

Grade 7B Gives
Geography Fair

With tickets selling at a penny each, the fair, conducted by 7B, under the supervision of Mrs. John M. Davis, began.

Last Thursday the geography room in the grade school was the scene of the educational exhibit.

Ninety-three students attended the fair which consisted of 15 table exhibits, 48 kinds of wood, a cattle ranch, fields of growing grain, a dry-goods store, an elevator, and a completely furnished house. Charts and note-books on each subject helped make up the fair, which completed the class's first unit of work.

MRS. WORD ENTERTAINS

The women of the faculty were entertained with an evening of music, bridge, and "42" last Saturday night by Mrs. Millard Word, at the home of Dr. S. L. Ingham. Miss Marie Fronabarger played several impromptu numbers.

Refreshments of caramel whip, coconut cake, nuts and coffee were served to the following: Mrs. Irby Carruth, Mrs. Ola Beeson, Mrs. T. W. Collins, Mrs. John Davis, Mrs. Tom Brasher, the Misses Ruth Greenfield, Gladys McClanahan, Edith Shields, Mattie Jordan, Jewel Foster, Lois Goodrich, Elva and Marie Fronabarger, Fannie Sue Brasuel, Sarah Thompson, Mary Charlotte Word, and the hostess.

Miss Virginia Jarrett, first grade teacher, spent the week-end in Shamrock with Mrs. Rufus Dodgen, nee Dorothy Cash, '30.

Help Keep Canyon Clean!

Members Of Staff Will Attend P. H. S. P. A. Sat.

Amid gayety and merry-making, 28 Canyon High School Press Club members will shove off at 8 o'clock Saturday morning in a Canyon High School bus to an all-day session of the Panhandle High School Press Association at Panhandle.

The Eagle's Tale staff was the originator of this association and the first meeting was held in Canyon, March 24, 1934. The first year 11 high schools joined and the number had increased to 18 when the association met last year at Pampa.

Sectional meetings will be held and pointers will be given editors, reporters, business managers, feature writers and sports writers.

At noon the staff of the Panther Scream, Panhandle's school paper, will serve the visiting members with a luncheon, at which several addresses will be made and new officers for the coming year selected, as well as a place for the meeting of '37 chosen.

In a general meeting three cups will be awarded the schools winning first place in the news story, editorial, and best edited school paper.

Last year these cups were presented by Louise Evans, member of the Amarillo News-Globe staff, Gilmore Nunn, general manager of the Pampa Daily News, and Clyde W. Warwick, editor of The Canyon News.

Rev. Craig Speaks
To Assembly Wed.

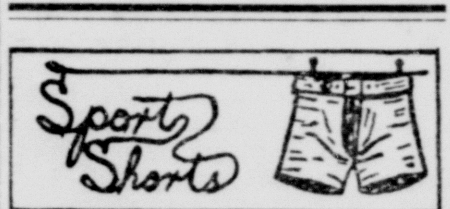

"Things to Choose," was the subject of Earl L. Craig, minister of the Church of Christ, in his address to the assembly yesterday.

"A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favor rather than silver and gold," Proverbs 22:1, was the text used by Mr. Craig.

It was shown in his talk that riches are not the greatest things in life, but rather that it is sinful to "make haste to be rich" (Proverbs 28:20).

The minister stated, "Abraham was a rich man as was Job and yet they were faithful and counted as being perfect in the sight of God."

GUESS WHO?
Wheat crop vender
Lives out west
Taylorville patriot
You know the rest.
Answer to last week's "Guess Who," Fay Plaster.

The school has received a large wrestling mat, and is to receive boxing gloves and a punching bag in the near future.

Whaddaya mean, substitutes? With a complete new five representing Canyon last Saturday night, the Canyon score was swelled by five points.

Wonder why Carolyn Mayfield was so quiet coming from Hereford Friday night? Could it be Jack Taylor?

The boys really appreciated the girls forming a pep squad and yelling for them at Hereford Friday night.

Hats off to Mr. Stevenson and his band. They really make the basketball games peppier with their music.

Grades Have Party; Scouts Meet

Sixth grades had an apron and overall party in the grade school gymnasium Monday at 7 o'clock. Basketball and volleyball were played.

2A and 4B have been making friezes for their rooms in art. 2A is making friezes of trains. 4B has been making pictures about Holland. Mrs. Carl Scott, director in art, said they seemed to be enjoying their work.

4B was given a surprise party by both Mrs. Cousins and Pauline Winstead. Pauline was 10 years old Monday, Jan. 27. Mrs. Cousins gave the room a surprise party in the grade school gymnasium, Friday. Pauline returned the surprise Monday at noon when she brought a large birthday cake to the room. Pauline is moving out of the state within the next week.

Miss Edith Shields conducted the study of parliamentary law in the Home Economics Club meeting last Tuesday evening. Tentative plans for the district meet were discussed. Jimmie Sol Slack, Annie Sue Rogers, and Renna Beth Bellah served refreshments of sandwiches, cookies and punch.

Laura V. Hamner
Gives Speech To

"I had rather teach than to eat," said Miss Laura V. Hamner, of Amarillo, writer of Panhandle history, in an interview after addressing the assembly, Jan. 22.

Miss Hamner has been collecting material and writing about the Panhandle for over 20 years. The state has adopted one of her books, "No Gun Man of Texas" for the seventh grade. The state has bought 37,000 copies.

"I never intend to write another book that was as hard to write as 'No Gun Man of Texas,'" said Miss Hamner.

"No Gun Man of Texas" is a biographical account of Charles Goodnight. It deals with the history of the cattle era and the Panhandle. Miss Hamner is now working on a sixth grade book on ranch life and is head of a Panhandle Writers' project for relief writers. Her territory covers 20 counties of the Panhandle, and her office is in Amarillo.

"Us mountaineers know our country, but do us plains people know our country?" was the theme that the pioneer authoress used in assembly. She told a brief story about Charles Goodnight and the history of the Panhandle of Texas.

The assembly sang "Home on the Range" and "There's a Long, Long Trail A'winding," led by Mr. R. G. Stevenson, band director, accompanied at the piano by Marjorie Wilkinson, senior.

Elva Fronabarger

Discusses 'Activity'

To Study Club

"The Activity Movement" was the subject of the talk given by Miss Elva Fronabarger before the P. T. A. Study Club last Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Miss Fronabarger gave a brief history of the Activity Movement. She showed that it was not new—that it had its beginning back in the days of pre-literate man. His education was one of learning by doing.

Many states are engaged in furthering the movement. Texas, for one, has a four-year program for curriculum revision.

Fronabarger Continues

"An activity curriculum (a) recognizes child growth as the basic consideration of the school program, (b) stresses experience as the medium through which the growth takes place, (c) integrates subject matter around problems or units of experience, (d) organizes subject matter into a series of experiences, rich and interesting to children, (e) makes the teacher guide the individual and group experiences of children, (f) emphasizes the mastery of new knowledge when needed in the study of problems, (g) accepts the mastery of basic skills and knowledge as an essential phase of children's experience, (h) recognizes the necessity for preparing children to meet situations that cannot be adequately foreseen," said Miss Fronabarger.

Fronabarger Shows Efforts

In describing what Canyon Grade School is doing in an effort to operate on an activity basis, Miss Fronabarger pictured the new equipment, new procedures, new programs, and described some of the experiences that were being used as a basis for the work.

Golda Glynn Anderson, Geneva Aylesworth, and Marvin Neely, from Plainview, visited Hazel Benton, junior, over the week end.

EAGLE TEAMS
PLAY DUMAS
DEMONS SAT.EAGLES AND EAGLETES IN-VADE FRIONA GYM
FRIDAY NIGHT

Suffering one defeat from the Eagles and Eaglettes, the Dumas Demons will seek revenge here Saturday night; likewise the Eagles and Eaglettes will invade the Red Chief gymnasium at Friona Friday night.

Having Dumas on their schedule for the first time in history, the Eagles are starting a new tradition. They defeated Dumas 51 to 15 Jan. 11, and they expect to be able to boast, "Dumas has never beat us in our history."

Friona Is Not Beat
Friona has not been beat by any high school this season and is victor of one of the only two defeats dealt the Eagles.

The Eagles line-up will be taken from the following: forwards, Jack Taylor and Darwin Dobbs; guards, Wesley Cox, and Tom Harris; and center, Ray Ford Rusk.

For the third time the Eaglettes will meet the Friona sextet in the Friona gymnasium tomorrow night.

The Eaglettes met the Friona six at the tournament there and were defeated 26 to 21. On the Eagles' home court they defeated Friona 27 to 10; with the dope bucket, it is anybody's game.

Eaglettes Meet Dumas III

The Dumas sextet will clash with the Eaglettes on the latter's home court Saturday night.

The Eaglettes have not been beaten on their home court this year. Captain Brock said, "The Eaglettes intend to make it stick."

The Eaglettes won a victory of 21 to 19 over Dumas at Dumas.

The probable line-up will be: Slack, Davis, McNeill, forwards; Collins, Brock, Overton, guards.

Dr. Hill Wears Unusually Historic Ring

There are rings that denote a bondage of loyalty, love, and "until death do us part," but none can have a deeper meaning than the ring Pres. J. A. Hill wears on the little finger of his left hand.

It is not only a band of plain yellow gold that encircles a finger, but it also possesses a history.

In the year 1918, Dr. R. B. Cousins, president of the West Texas State Teachers College, retired.

His resignation came as a surprise to all members of the faculty, but to no one any more than Dr. J. A. Hill, head of the history department. Without his knowledge, Pres. Cousins recommended the history teacher to the Board of Regents, and they elected him president of the college.

A faculty banquet was given in honor of the former president, and he was asked to speak. At the end of the talk, he asked Dr. Hill to rise. With a figure of speech, using a ring as a symbol of continuity of his love and affection for this institution, Dr. Cousins placed it on the finger of the newly elected president.

Dr. Hill was charged with seeing that highest ideals always govern the administration of the college, and that this ring symbolize a band of affection between the president and the faculty.

Will you please tell me what a kilowatt hour is?

Certainly, madam, we'll be glad to!

A kilowatt hour is a unit of measurement. Just like a pound of butter, a peck of potatoes, a quart of milk. That's all—just a convenient unit to measure the amount of electricity you use in your home each month.

True, you can't measure it with your eye as you can a quart of milk or a pound of butter, but you can measure the work it does for you. For example:

ONE KILOWATT HOUR (or KWH as it appears on your bill) WILL

- Light a 100 watt lamp for 10 hours
- Run an electric clock for more than 2 weeks
- Run an average-sized electric refrigerator about 20 hrs.
- Run a 10-inch fan 27 hours

Kilowatt hours now cost less than ever before. In fact, some add nothing to your bill! By using all the electricity to which you are entitled you get the greatest benefits from the new ultimate rate now in effect.

Old Tack Talks Tuesday Regarding Conditions

Gene Howe, the Tactless Texan of the Amarillo News-Globe, spoke Tuesday at the Rotary Club luncheon. In his characteristic manner he told of conditions prevailing in the country today, and noted things which must be changed.

"I cannot understand why any person living out in this section should not be a Democrat," stated Mr. Howe, as he pointed to the inequalities heaped upon the farmers by the tariff. Study of the tariff and its effects has been his hobby for years. He pointed to Kansas as an example of the manner in which agriculture went to smash because of the high Republican tariff even before the depression. Tractors that sell in this country at $1,000 are manufactured here and sold in European countries at $500 because of the tariff. The same is true of other manufactured articles of the east. Mr. Howe believes in a direct subsidy for the farmers.

"President Roosevelt is the only President who has given the farmers a square deal," stated the speaker. While Mr. Howe placed home and country above any political party, "I cannot be for anyone but Mr. Roosevelt."

The President is not a socialist or a communist, and he has not associated these with him in his administration, but he has a few in his confidence who believe that experiments will cure the situation. Mr. Howe states that the east is afraid of inflation, and a continuation of the spending spree which is going on. "Every man, every city of every nation which continues spending faster than its income will go broke," stated the speaker.

Mr. Howe is concerned regarding the centralization of government. Agencies are being moved from Canyon and other Panhandle town to be placed in Amarillo. Larger ones are centralized in such towns as Dallas. This is working against the interest of the small communities.

Bob Foster, chairman of the International Relations Committee, was in charge of the program. Clyde Warwick introduced the speaker.

Visitors present were: Lane McAfee, O. W. Wright, H. W. Galloway, Emmett Galloway, Arthur Osgood, M. W. West, E. B. Meyer, Jerry Malin, Gene Howe of Amarillo; E. G. Allred and W. S. Jones of Lubbock; J. N. Duff of Hays.

Dr. Will Durant to Give Lecture at W. T. on February 7th

Dr. Will Durant, author of the "Story of Philosophy," will lecture in Canyon, February 7. His subject will be "The Crisis in American Civilization."

To Dr. Durant goes the credit for making the American people philosophy conscious. More than a half million copies of his book sold in the United States alone at $5.00 a copy.

Dr. Durant is quite as well known in America as a public speaker of power and charm as he is famous as the author of best selling books. He is an optimist. He has recently traveled extensively in the Orient and has returned to the United States with greater confidence in Western civilization than he had before. He knows that there is much that is wrong in our present civilization, and he frankly admits its weaknesses, but he believes also that we have great elements of strength. Dr. Will Durant is brought to Canyon by the West Texas State Teachers College. Admission for the general public will be 40c and 75 cents.

Miss Helen Lyles was a business caller in Plainview Monday afternoon.

Museum Visitor Highly Pleased With Exhibits

E. B. Sayles of the Gila Museum Globe, Ariz., thinks that the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum at Canyon is a very unusual place.

Writing recently to a friend who is interested in the work of the Museum, he said, "What you have already done with both the building and the exhibits was so far ahead of what I was expecting that I am afraid that I couldn't very well express myself in appreciation of them at the time. It seems to me that you have an unusually well adapted plant to present your material in a most satisfactory way (someone was certainly on the job when the building was planned. You already have enough material on hand, not only for permanent exhibits, but toward building up a large study series, and from which your exhibits might be changed from time to time. Probably the time is not far off before you will have accumulated so much material that it will be necessary to withdraw some of it from exhibition. I think you could well do this, without taking away any of the value of a single specimen. Certain exhibits on the first floor might be changed from time to time—sort of synoptic series, etc. But on the floor below would be available all of the material, so that those who are particularly interested in particular things could study them to their heart's content."

Those in charge of the museum expect to carry out some of Mr. Sayles' suggestions so that visitors to the museum can see different exhibits from month to month. The museum is visited every month of the year by hundreds of children from the public schools of northwest Texas, many of them coming as far as 150 miles for a day's study.

Plays Presented By W. T. Dramatic Club Tuesday Eve

The W. T. High School Dramatic Club gave its first performance of two one-act plays last Tuesday night in the Education Building auditorium.

One of the comedies, "The Christmas Chime," was directed by Coy Palmer, speech major from Alameda. This play was the humorous story of a young couple who invited to spend Christmas with them, a boy and girl who, they thought were engaged; but, who really had quarrelled bitterly and broken their engagement. The embarrassments resulting from the situation furnished bright dialogue and an amusing plot. In the cast, Sam Burton played the part of Joe Terrill; Anita Cleland was Gladys Terrill, his wife; Wayne Byars, Ted Owen; and Pearl Mayben, Dolly Wakeley.

The other play, "Dear Lady, Be Brave," was under the direction of Sybil Payne, speech major from Paducah. The theme of this play was built around a doctor who endeavored to help his friend decide which of three girls to marry. The cast for this delightful comedy consisted of Roy Sanderson of Paducah as Dr. Clark; Lanny Line, as William Tandy; J. D. Roberts as Fungus, the negro janitor; Peggy Burnett, as Miss Sweet; Bonnie Dickinson as Hattie Montgomery; and Kathryn Winters as Daisy McClendon.

Coy Palmer and Bomar Brown furnished music between the plays, and Miss June Bieler, also a speech major, read in the Dutch dialect.

Cemetery

(Continued from page one) appearance of the grounds denote the great amount of time, thought and energy has been used.

The officers of the association have this week made a report of the activities up to the end of the year 1935 which is to be submitted to the regular monthly meeting of the association in the County Court room next Saturday at 3:30 p. m. The report is as follows:

Officers Report
It is fitting that the officers of the Canyon Cemetery Association make a report of what has been done at Dreamland Cemetery since its organization a bare nine months ago. We have received hearty co-operation on every hand in our attempts to carry out what seemed to be the desires of the Association and those interested. Members and committees have served faithfully and well.

We desire to thank those who have made various donations of cash, flowers, shrubbery, labor and otherwise. A particular list of these is too long to publish. Some, however, have been so distinctive as to deserve special mention. According to the list of improvements as shown herein, the County Judge, and Commissioners Court of Randall County, in which the title to the property is legally held, have been very helpful in every way. Commissioner G. B. Heath, in whose district the cemetery is located, has aided us and advised in every reasonable request and we therefore render special thanks.

Caretaker G. M. Stuart has been most courteous and energetic, having entered into the plan with much zeal. Lot owners have aided in improvements and planting which we more than appreciate. Friends have been generous in donation of plants and flowers. The Junior Women's Club was of inestimable assistance in the initial planning of the large amount of work to be done and in aiding the consummation of these plans.

The County Commissioners Court made the following improvements during the time:

Furnished and laid 2160 feet of two-inch water mains; 180 feet of three-quarter inch lateral lines; thirty-six water hydrants; built foundation for and erected a new windmill and water tower; made four new entrances including guards and tiles for drainage; graded streets and graveled the streets and driveways; removed excess soil and blow sand from the grounds and fences; painted fences and water tower. In this connection the paint was furnished by the Thompson Hardware Company. Thanks. Last but not least the Court hired a full-time caretaker.

The following is a financial report of the activities of the association itself:

filled with cannas, 4 with roses, 6 with lilacs. We wish to plant the remaining 26 beds this year.

4,864 Iris and 672 lilacs were the total planted.

At this time approximately two thousand tamarack shrubs are being planted to form a hedge on the north and south lines of the cemetery. These have been furnished generously and without cost by Mr. T. M. Moore and some of the boys from the T-Anchor ranch. This will properly come under the head of 1936 improvements but we must commend and thank them now.

Ours has been a labor of love supported by generous citizenship and we now bespeak a continuance of courtesies and aid to the end that the resting place of loved ones may be a land of beauty.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. R. A. Terrill, President.
Mrs. Clyde McElroy, Vice-pres.
Mrs. E. D. Harrell, Sec'y-treas.

(Continued from page one) nouncement I am most earnestly asking for their vote and support and repay their confidence by serving to the very best of my ability. I hope that every voter will carefully consider my candidacy for this important office."

W. T. (Bill) DAVIS.

District Court

(Continued from first page) was empaneled for the January Term on the 6th day of January and went immediately into the investigation of the violations of the laws of the County; that during the 3 weeks term the Grand Jury was in session 6 days; that during their investigations, 21 cases were taken under consideration and 92 witnesses appeared before the Grand Jury on the different cases, most of which were felony cases; that as a result of such an investigation 9 true bills were returned and 3 no bills.

That the Grand Jury investigated several other matters of interest to the citizens of Randall County. It was especially called to the attention of the Grand Jury the seriousness of abuse of public property at the local postoffice; that the Grand Jury was informed by post office authorities that unless the property was respected, the post office building would have to be closed at 6 o'clock in the evening. The Grand Jury also made investigations and appreciate the co-operation afforded them by the local merchants in regards to the sales of lotions and extracts that are sometimes used for purposes other than those for which they are intended.

The Grand Jury made further special investigations in matters that concern the people of the county as a whole in regards to peddlers and salesmen which range from the sale of magazines, tombstones and all kinds of bonds, and that they think that the public should be guarded against such peddling unless they know they are dealing with reputable companies.

It was also called to the Grand Jury's attention the condition of the public buildings of the County and City, all of which are being kept in a good state of repair, but it might suggest that our local jail be better ventilated.

We, the Grand Jury further wish to thank the local peace officers and the District and County attorneys for the assistance in our investigations. We also wish to thank the District Judge, E. C. Nelson, for his courteous treatment since we have been in session.

(Signed)
Albert Byars, Foreman.
